

The Thoughtful Co.

Workshops

Building Your Career Plan (60 minutes)

This workshop will support attendees in building out a concrete career map that sets the stage for them to achieve their goals. We'll work on actionable planning you can start today, that will help you get to where you want to be in the future. By creating a clear vision and step-by-step roadmap, you'll be better equipped to navigate career challenges and seize opportunities for growth and advancement. We leave time for group discussion and Q&A to ensure all your questions are answered.

This workshop is led by either Jillian Climie or Sophie Warwick, see speaker bios below.

Key takeaways include:

- The specific steps to take to help you build out your career plan.
- Gain the tools to gather valuable insights from both external opportunities and your own self-reflection, helping you create a personalized career roadmap.
- What you should, and should not be, included in a career map.
- The importance of using goals, metrics, and timelines in empowering you to achieve your goals.
- How to address biases women face as they move up in their careers.

Format: we offer both virtual and in-person workshops. Contact us today to learn more about our fees.

Jillian Climie (she/her)

Jillian Climie, Co-Founder of The Thoughtful Co., has spent her career advising and leading teams in executive compensation and corporate governance, both as a consultant, and in-house at two global retailers. Most recently at Lululemon, she led the global equity and executive compensation programs. She co-founded The Thoughtful Co. so she can leverage her niche and technical experience, coupled with her passion for gender equity, to 1) empower women to get paid what they deserve, and 2) empower employers to build more inclusive workplaces. She supports clients across Canada, the US and the UK.

Sophie Warwick (she/her)

Sophie Warwick, Co-Founder of the Thoughtful Co., specializes in developing in-house gender equity policies and chairing Employee Resource Groups and advocacy groups. She uses her data analysis expertise from her engineering background to define targets and track growth and retention. In 2018, she Co-Founded Women in Consulting Engineering (WCE), a non-profit organization to support and empower women in engineering. She co-founded The Thoughtful Co. so she could build more gender inclusive workplaces, help women in advocating for their value, and build representation of women at senior levels in all industries.
