This workshop is led by Sophie Warwick, who specializes in developing in-house gender equity policies and chairing Employee Resource Groups, and Jillian Climie, who has spent her career in executive compensation.

Key takeaways include:

- The specific steps to take to help you build out your career plan.
- Information gathering - both externally, and within yourself.
- What should, and should not be, included in a career map.
- The importance of using goals, metrics and timelines.
- How to address biases women face as they move up in their careers.
