Active Allyship: Paving the Way to Inclusivity (60 minutes)

This workshop will help you understand the meaning of true inclusion by exploring what it means to be a dedicated and engaged ally. We'll teach you practical strategies to transform your positive intentions into meaningful actions that uplift and empower diverse experiences. By embracing these practices, you'll foster a more inclusive environment where everyone feels valued, respected, and heard. We leave time for group discussion and Q&A to ensure all your questions are answered.

This workshop is led by either Jillian Climie or Sophie Warwick, see speaker bios below.

Key takeaways include:

- Understanding the difference between equality, equity, and true inclusion in the workplace.
- Defining active allyship & why it's important.
- How to turn positive intentions into impactful actions.
- Learning how to be a supportive ally that can empower diverse experiences.
- Understanding the impact of Employee Resource Groups (ERGs).

Format: we offer both virtual and in-person workshops. Contact us today to learn more about our fees.

Jillian Climie (she/her)

Jillian specializes in leveraging her strategic human resources background to help women get paid what they deserve and to support employers in building more equitable workplaces. A graduate of Ivey Business School, Jillian built her career in executive compensation and corporate governance, advising organizations both as a consultant and in-house at two multinational retailers. Most recently at Lululemon, she led the global equity and executive compensation teams. At The Thoughtful Co., her clients on average achieve +25% increases in their pay, and have successfully negotiated at leading companies worldwide.

Sophie Warwick (she/her)

Sophie Warwick is an experienced public speaker who delivers evidence-based keynotes and workshops on negotiation, career advancement, inclusive leadership, and equitable policies. She has facilitated sessions for organizations including Cambridge University, Oxford University, Stantec, Wealthsimple, Nokia, Ledcor, ISL Engineering, ACEC-BC, VRCA, CFA Vancouver, and Women in Transportation. With over a decade of industry experience and a Master's in Structural and Earthquake Engineering from the University of British Columbia, Sophie brings analytical rigor, facilitation expertise, and practical insight to every session.
